Commencement Dance.

The senior class at Punahou Academy, which has given parties and has studied together since "prep" days, entertained at the last of the social affairs of the Academy for this year at the commencement dance at the McAna Hotel on Monday evening. Yellow and gold, the class colors, predominated in the decorations and tapers were festoons of the drooping golden shower combined with tropical vines draped about the walls of the room, while beneath the balcony where the musicians were seated the class emblem was developed with the same flowers and vines. Late in the evening a delightful supper was served after which the dancing was resumed.

Miss Dorothy Hoogs, one of the popular members of the class and Joseph Farrington, the class president and winner of the trustees' loving cup, were host and hostess during the evening. The guests included members of the younger set and representatives from different schools about town as well as older folk. Many members of the Punahou Alumni were also noticed among the dancers.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening were President and Mrs. Arthur F. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. King, Mrs. M. R. Hoogs, Mrs. James F. Morgan and Mrs. C. G. Ballantyne. Members of the class who assisted at the affair were Miss Grace Bredhoff, Miss Mele Williams, Miss Ramona Morgan, Claude King, Bernard Damon and Stafford Austin.

Some among those who were present were: Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Cleo Case, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Marion Chapin, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Electa Williams, Miss Mary Forrest, Miss Mele Williams, Miss Ynez Gibson, Miss Kathleen Walker, Miss Sophie Walker, Miss Grace Bredhoff, Miss Henrietta Schwartz, Miss Alice Bond, Miss DeLaney, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Frances Farrington, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Rhoda Ballentyne, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Beth Woods, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Ilma Woods, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Georgia Armstrong, Miss Maud Manning, Miss Ruth Seybolt, Miss Bessie Seybolt, Miss Louise Girvin, Miss Sybil Carter, Miss Marguerite Bryant, Miss Helen Center, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Frances Williams, Miss Louise Churchill, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Stella Hoogs, Kit Carson, Dr. George Bailey, Blakeley McStocker, Robert Hendry, Gus Hoover, Blaine Stevens, Ray Maple, Will Noonan, Don Day, Jack McDonald, Henry Chillingworth, James Morgan, Harold Morgan, James Campbell, Leroy Bush, Albert Bush, Shirley Bush, Arthur Brown, Parker Woods, Sam Stacker, Cornell Hamilton, Lieutenant Harrison Richards, Edwin Gibb, William Oudekirk, Lorrin Thurston, Bernard Damon, Stafford Austin, Harry Hoffman, Frank Winter and others.

Vernon Tenney to Return This Summer.

Much to the delight of his many friends, Vernon Tenney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, is to return to Honolulu this summer. Mr. Tenney, who is one of the most popular men in the younger set, is expected home in the Lurline next Tuesday morning, and will remain here for several weeks. He graduated from Punahou Academy in 1914 and since that time has been studying in an Eastern college, where he has given a good account of himself both in his studies and in athletics, to say nothing of the active part he has taken in the social side of college life.

In Honor of Miss Margaret Jones.

In honor of their sister, Miss Margaret Jones, the Misses Helen and Catherine Jones entertained at a delightful dinner last evening in Nuuanu valley. The table was prettily decorated with dainty flowers and ferns and attractive cards marked the places of the guests. After dinner the young folks spent the evening dancing. Among those present were Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Carol Low, George Fuller, George Ahlborn, Francis Brown, Leighton Hind, Vivien Dyer, Ted Cooper and the hostesses.

Miss Rosamond Swamy Entertains.

Entertaining at the Swamy home in Manoa Valley, Miss Rosamond Swamy was hostess at a prettily-appointed dinner last evening. Flowers and ferns artistically arranged, ornamented the center of the table at which covers were laid for Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Peggy Carter, Gilbert Hatch, Arthur Sewell, Mr. Camby and the hostess.

Miss Harriet Hatch to Entertain.

Miss Harriet Hatch, who recently returned from a trip to the mainland, is entertaining at a dance this evening at Sans Souci in honor of her brother, Gilbert Hatch, and his house-guest, Arthur Sewell.

House Party at Kaneohe.

A number of the Punahou Academy girls who have set away books and serious things for a period to last about eleven weeks, namely, "long vacation," left in the nine o'clock bus for Kaneohe on Friday morning where they will remain until the third of July. The popular Kerr residence, where so many delightful house-parties have been held, has again opened its doors, and the young folks expect to enjoy fishing, boating and horse-back riding. Some of the girls in the party are Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Ynez Gibson, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Dorothy Winter, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Merrily Nalle, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Ilma Woods. Some of the guests expected the first part of next week are Miss Helen Center, Miss Sybil Carter, Miss Louise Girvin, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Edith August, Miss Ruth Farrington and Miss Mildred Brownwell. Mrs. M. D. Winter is chaperoning the party.

Galt Boys Coming Soon.

"Where are Jack and Carter Galt? That question has been on the lips of nearly every member of the younger set for as each week the steamers from the mainland have brought back groups of college students in none of the groups have the smiling faces of the Galt boys been seen. Their return to the islands this summer was almost despaired of, but letters received this week say they are coming home in the Wilhelmina the 6th of July.

Jack and Carter Galt are among the most popular of the young Honolulu boys. Always when they are in town the Galt home in Nuuanu rings with merriment, for the boys have usually a houseful of company, and when they are not entertaining they are guests at some other party, for no summer affair would be complete without "Jack and Carter."

Colonel R. G. Ebert Entertains.

Colonel Ebert entertained informally at a dinner party on Tuesday evening before the dance at the Pleasant Hotel. An attractive centerpiece was laid of red carnations and maidenhair fern. Colonel Ebert's guests for the evening were Captain and Mrs. W. R. Davis and Captain and Mrs. L. J. Owen.

Mr. Will Warren a Dinner Host.

Mr. Will Warren entertained at dinner at the Pleasanton on Tuesday, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Warren and Miss Mervie Hanna. After dinner the party participated in the dance.

Informal Chowder Party.

The moonlight and the beach in the past week have lured more of Honolulu's society than ever before. Each evening the Outrigger Club has been filled to its capacity with moonlight bathers and merry-makers. Especially the younger set take advantage of the beach on such matchless nights as Honolulu has witnessed during the past week. Under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. P. S. Hawk, a party of young folks on Thursday enjoyed a chowder supper and swim at the Outrigger Club. Among them were Miss Louise Girvin, Miss Helen Center, Miss Merrily Nalle, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Mildred Brownwell, and Miss Margaret Hawk, Parker Woods, Gustave Ballentyne, Ernest Padmore, Lorrin Thurston, Frank Winter and Arthur Brown.

Swimming Party in Nuuanu Stream.

"Nuuanu stream, Nuuanu stream, Am I awake, or do I dream?" A few members of the younger set who were looking for "something different" decided to have a moonlight supper and swim on the banks of the Nuuanu stream, where the swan-like has just set in its season of blooming. Nothing really is so rare as a night in June on the banks of that stream, with the sweet fragrance of the ginger permeating the air. The Misses Jessie Kinney, Ruth Soper, Mary Lucas, Harriet Lucas and Sari Lucas, and Messrs. Dave Larson, Charles Lucas, Bob Purvis, "Kelly" Henshaw and Walter Argabrite enjoyed the evening.

SOCIETY AT THE EXPOSITION.

By Kamaaina. (Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The last few weeks have been active in social life in San Francisco, the most brilliant functions having been given at the Exposition. One of the most pretensions of these was a reception at which Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Sesena entertained in honor of the Foreign and State Commissioners and their wives.

The reception which was held from four to six o'clock, and from nine to eleven o'clock, the evening, in the beautiful home of the Sesenas on Divisadero street on the apex of a hill overlooking the exposition grounds, represented the flower of San Francisco society, and of the states and "broad," and was a most brilliant affair.

The reception hall, the stairway and reception rooms were transformed into bowers of roses, whole branches of American Beauties being used as an arch over the refreshment table, and baby ramblers concealing the rail of the winding stairs.

The ladies and gentlemen's dressing rooms were adorned with lilacs of the valley and spring flowers in gold baskets, the windows of these rooms overlooking the brilliant panorama of the illuminated exposition grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sesena were assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. C. Moore, wife of the president of the exposition; Mrs. James Rolph, Jr., wife of Mayor Rolph; Mrs. Stiff, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, and Miss Lindley.

Mrs. Sesena was beautiful in white brocade and her arms full of lavender orchids, while Mrs. Moore wore jet and black chiffon embroidered in gold. Her attendant was of diamonds, supporting a bird of paradise. Mrs. Rolph wore grey tulle with spring flowers, Mrs. Hearst wore blue tulle and brocade, and Miss Lindley was charming in white satin and chiffon. An orchestra played in stairs in the ball room for those who wished to dance, and the reception rooms overflowed with the numbers who constantly arrived.

Among the large number of invited guests were seen several Honoluluans, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Miss Louise Gerard, and Commissioner and Mrs. Richardson being present.

Practically inexhaustible deposits of asphalt discovered in the Philippines two years ago will be developed commercially.
